

Thank You For Helping Us

Thank you for considering giving us your thoughts on the strengths and weaknesses of this website.

SexEd.net contains over 1,200 third-party sourced responses to over 130 topics on sex, from Abstinence to Masturbation to What Is Sex.

We put this site together because we think it is important to make it easy for people to access comprehensive information on sex. Such information can be hard to find given personal, religious and cultural biases against talking or learning about sex.

The creator of SexEd.net is exploring making a book from much of the information on the site.

To explore that idea, we are hoping you will spend at least 30 minutes on the SexEd.net site and fill out a 14-point questionnaire (on page 2 of this PDF) about what you see as the pros and cons of the information on the site and your thoughts of creating a book from the information.

Within five days of receiving back your filled out questionnaire, we will pay you $35 and send a thank you note for your opinions on this site and the possible use for a book.

For any other questions, send an email to apriltheassistant@gmail.com
